ITALY – RIVIERA DELLE PALME – Duca Amedeo Camping

Martinsicuro – located in the Abruzzo region in central Italy, in the southern part of the renowned Riviera delle Palme (Riviera of Palms) – five kilometres from the famed San Benedetto del Tronto port, and 49 kilometres from the city of Teramo, the capital of the province. Characteristic of Martinsicuro is its palm-lined promenade that borders the seashore, where an evening stroll offers delicious Italian ice cream, or lounging in one of the many cafes or traditional Italian restaurants. In recent years, Martinsicuro has become the favoured destination for Czech tourists in the Riviera delle Palme. A lively pedestrian promenade lines its beaches with countless attractions as well as a cycling route via which you can travel by bicycle or roller-skates to the town of Tortoreto Lido (15 km). Other enticing tourist destinations include: Villa Rosa, San Benedetto del Tronto, Peasaro, Fano, Cupra Marittima, Alba Adriatica, Pineto, Silvi Marina, and Montesilvano.

Martinsicuro is lined by a gorgeous, over 60-metre-wide beach with countless opportunities for sports activities (beach volleyball, children's jungle gyms, etc.). Guests also have the option of choosing between public or private beaches. The beach slopes gently into the water.

The Duca Amedeo Camping is situated directly on the sea, about 200 m from the centre, in the shade of towering palm trees, olive trees, and maples. It lies a sufficient distance away from the railroad tracks, ensuring a pleasant, peaceful holiday. The camping also offers its guests a pool with hydromassage as well as a children's pool with a slide. The camping regularly organises animation programmes for children, and also includes opportunities for ping pong, volleyball, foosball, a children's jungle gym, and bicycle rental. www.ducaamedeo.it
